Welcome

I am so pleased to have recently joined The Roses Theatre family! I’ve received such a huge warm welcome in my first few months in my new job and it’s been wonderful getting to know the theatre, the town of Tewkesbury, and its residents.

One thing that’s really struck me is how much The Roses is loved and valued. I’ve spoken to so many people that have told me how proud they are to have this amazing theatre in their town... and I couldn’t agree more!

So what lies ahead for me? Well, I’ll be making sure that we continue building on what is already a very successful and very packed programme, offering audiences a wide choice of high quality events.

In this coming season we have something for everyone. Don’t miss the special guests who join Peter Knight’s Gigspanner for a special one-off concert; The James Taylor Quartet, a British four-piece jazz funk band who have become renowned for their live performances; plus The Magic of Motown and Whitney: Queen of the Night, two phenomenal live shows which guarantee a great night out. We’ve also got some great family theatre and blockbuster films to keep the whole family entertained throughout the summer holidays.

I would love to hear your feedback and what you would like to see at The Roses, so please feel free to get in touch and let me know.

I look forward to seeing you here soon!

Next Live Broadcast Announced

Following our first trial live broadcast of I AM BEAST back in March, we are delighted to announce the second, which will take place on Thursday 8 June when we broadcast EDge - the postgraduate performance company of London Contemporary Dance School.

We hope that in time many of our productions will offer the opportunity to watch online for those that are unable to come to the theatre for the live performance or the chance to watch a performance where tickets have sold out.

The live screening on 8th June is free to watch – please check our website for further details and instructions on how to access the live broadcast.

Abba Forever

ABBA Forever is one of the UK’s leading international tribute shows, and theatre audiences have long enjoyed this superb recreation of one of the world’s greatest pop bands. The unique ABBA sound is replicated with an incredible attention to detail, using a six-piece band. Two outstanding ABBA girls complete the line-up, adding the essential glitz and glamour to a well-polished and humorous show.

The wonderful lyrics penned by Benny and Bjorn are sung in magnificent harmony by all six performers on stage. Dynamic non-stop choreography, stunning visuals, top class musicianship and a complete performance ensures that the ABBA Forever Show captivates audiences from the opening refrain to the final sing-along chorus of this two-hour spectacular.

Lazy Sunday Afternoon Jazz

The Paul Johnson Jazz Café

Following a successful visit in March, clarinet player Paul Johnson once again joins up with Nathan King on guitar and Mike Sallis on bass to present their own take on jazz standards and cafe music.

Whether playing as a trio, or with an occasional guest soloist, the three friends love jazz ballads and standards in the spirit of café culture, occasionally dipping into eastern folk and Latin music to express their pleasure in sharing the moment with a close audience.

Paul has been a trustee of The Roses for two years and when not appearing in the artistic programme can be found as a managing partner of local solicitors Thomson & Bancks.

Bandit 19
Bandit is an immersive four-day songwriting and band workshop for students aged 8 to 17. By taking part, students from around the county have the opportunity to gain experience in musicianship, creative songwriting and performance skills.
The first three days are held at Tewkesbury School, with performance day and gig at The Roses. For more information on how to take part please see www.banditmusicprojects.co.uk or contact Kevin Howlett on 07827 434246.

As You Like It
Dressed as a man, the exiled Rosalind is ready to begin a new life after escaping her foes in the dead of night. But, when she runs into the love-sick Orlando and joins forces with the colourful inhabitants of the Forest of Arden, who knows? Rosalind’s plans may lead to more than just her own happy ending...

Shakespeare is always made understandable and enjoyable with MadCap’s fun, fast-paced and entertaining staging that combines comedy, music, dance and physicality with the original script.
The group began as a collective in 2011 with Kim and her Dad, Andrew. Since then the Greenwood has become an established four-piece on the British folk scene. Their new album, Wild & Wicked Youth, will be released this Autumn.

“British folk music continues to remain in very good hands” Folk Radio UK

The Rat Pack
The star studded cast of the U.K.’s original and longest running Rat Pack show include Des Coleman (Lenny from Eastenders) as Sammy Davis Jnr, Paul Drakeley (Inside Out) as Dean Martin and Ol’ Blue Eyes himself in the shape of one of the world’s greatest Sinatra interpreters David Alacey (Lovejoy).

Now, together with the Swinging Buddy Greco Orchestra under the direction of BBC Musical Director Don Hunt and the stunning L.A. Showgirls, they are joined in this brand new spectacular by the amazing talent of Anita Harris. Anita whose hit recordings include Just Loving You and The Anniversary Waltz is perhaps best known for her numerous appearances in movies including the legendary Carry On series and on stage in The West End with her acclaimed performance as Grizabella in Cats.

Presents William Shakespeare’s

Much Ado About Nothing

The war is over and the eighties are in full swing. Duke Leonato is visited by Prince Pedro and his wingmen Benedick and Claudio. When Claudio falls in love with the Duke’s daughter Hero, their marriage is agreed, but the Prince’s leather-bound illegitimate brother contrives a malicious plot: Claudio is misled into thinking that he has witnessed Hero in a compromising situation on the night before their wedding – in fact it is her aerobics instructor with a member of Wham! After being denounced during their lavish marriage ceremony, Hero faints. Beatrice, a good friend of Hero’s, demands that Benedick should kill Claudio… Will all be resolved in amongst the unfolding turmoil of eighties pop music?!

Gigspanner’s Big Birthday Band

Celebrate Peter Knight’s 70th birthday year with him as he brings together friends old and new for a special one-off concert. Already firmly established as a trio, Peter Knight’s Gigspanner is comprised of Peter, Roger Flack and new percussionist Sacha Trochet. This evening they will by joined by duo Philip Henry and Hannah Martin as well as fellow folk stalwart John Spiers. Unhindered by the limits of technical ability, the group take self-penned material along with music rooted in the British Isles, and with the flick of a bow, a finely chosen chord or slip of a beat, produce richly atmospheric arrangements layered within a wealth of subliminal musical influences.

The Dolly Parton Story

This fabulous evening pays homage to the Queen of Country and all the music she has written and performed over the years. Andrea Pattison truly becomes Dolly from the moment she puts on her replica rhinestone-encrusted costumes. She perfectly replicates her unique sound and phrasing, as well as her renowned onstage wit and charm. On this special night, she’ll be joined on stage by the UK’s top Kenny Rogers impersonator, Peter White, with whom she performs the classic Dolly and Kenny duets Islands In The Stream, We’ve Got Tonight and Real Love. Peter will also be performing Kenny classics such as Ruby, Coward Of The County and of course, The Gambler. Backed by an amazing four piece band, this is set to be an unforgettable night.

Dogs Don’t Do Ballet

This is the very funny tale of a small dog with big dreams! Biff is not like other dogs. He doesn’t do dog stuff like scratching his fleas or drinking out of the toilet. No, Biff likes moonlight and music and walking on his tiptoes. You see, Biff doesn’t think he’s a dog. He thinks he’s a ballerina!

Based on the bestselling children’s book by Anna Kemp and Sara Ogilvie, this fabulous feel-good show features music, songs, hand-crafted puppets and Biff, the ballet-dancing dog!

Brought to the stage by acclaimed Blunderbus, this hilarious new story tells the very funny tale of a small dog with big dreams!

Romeo & Juliet

Oddsocks are delighted to be breathing new life into Shakespeare’s Romeo & Juliet by giving it a musical Mods & Rockers twist! There’s ‘Nowhere To Run To’ for the Capulets and Montagues as violent confrontation stalks every meeting, even ‘Down In The Tube Station At Midnight’. Meanwhile, Juliet’s nurse is looking forward to a good old ‘Twist And Shout’ at the Capulet party, which Romeo’s mates are planning to gatecrash. Romeo has doubts about going to the Capulet ‘Nite Klub’ but that is where he meets his Juliet, and ‘It Must Be Love’. Maybe, just maybe, ‘The Power Of Love’ will end the families’ violent feud...

Finding Joy

A co-production from Vamos Theatre, The Hereford Courtyard and JABADAO

Joy is 83 today: she’s funny, loves to dance, and is losing her memory. Her grandson Danny is rebellious, bright and always getting into trouble. When Danny decides to look after Joy, they discover a shared playfulness and a mutual affection. But is that enough to take on the challenges ahead?

Vamos Theatre’s wordless production tells the true story of a teenager’s decision to care for his grandmother with dementia, with humour, poignancy, and warmth. Praised by everyone from The Guardian to Dementia Positive, Vamos’ critically acclaimed and award winning production witnessed phenomenal success at last year’s Edinburgh Festival and has enjoyed two international sell-out tours.

This life-affirming story of lost memories and discovered love is a must-see and has secured Vamos as the UK’s leading full mask theatre company.

You’ll laugh, you’ll cry, you’ll find joy!

Sing-a-Long-a Rocky Horror Picture Show

You may have seen it before but never like this…

The campest cult classic of all time is packed full of terrific numbers from The Timewarp to Sweet Transvestite. Made in 1975, it’s the craziest, most action-packed, romantic, scary Transylvanian party of all time.

The evening begins with your host leading a vocal warm-up before they show you how to use your free interactive props bag. This is an outrageous, riotous, kitsch, wonderful romp – you won’t have a better chance to let your hair down this year!

Fancy dress is not obligatory but highly recommended - we’ll also be keeping the bar open for a Rocky Horror party afterwards.

Dire Streets

Dire Streets perfectly capture the distinctive sound of one of the major guitar-based bands of the late seventies. Fronted by finger-picking guitar ace John Brunsdon and his band of accomplished musicians, they play with an attention to detail and musicianship that marks them as the stand-out Dire Straits tribute in the UK. Dire Streets cover tracks from early classics like Sultans of Swing and Lady Winter, through to the mega-hits of the 80s and Brothers In Arms, taking in all the classic album and live versions from the legendary Alchemy, Live Aid and Mandela concerts.

Dire Streets are:

Graham Jones

Graham Jones started to paint at around the age of 12, but after discovering the art of three dimensions he became a professional sculptor which he has enjoyed for 35 years. Returning to painting, his works use the freedom of approach he discovered as a sculptor but takes him down exciting new routes of self expression with colour and composition.

Gareth Austin’s work (pictured) depicts his fascination with contrast between light and dark and how light falling on objects and the shadows created defines the materials and textures of the subjects. He uses realism and detail as a way of freezing time, inviting us to appreciate the dazzling beauty of simple things.

Passion For Painting

This exhibition of work by Evesham College’s Passion for Painting group offers an exciting and colourful range of new work. Working in various paint mediums, such as oils, acrylic and collage, many themes are explored to produce a selection of contemporary and traditional art works for sale.

Britain On Film: Rural Life (1)

This fascinating collection of films from the BFI archives takes audiences down the country lanes of the past, meandering through the dwindling customs of another era. Touching on all the technological, industrial and social changes that affected our countryside throughout the 20th century, these films evoke and encourage not only nostalgia, but also broader and more meaningful reflections on the nature of rural life and village communities in the UK today.

Churchill (PG)
June 1944, and a massive army is secretly assembled on the south coast of Britain, poised to re-take Nazi-occupied Europe. One man stands in their way: Winston Churchill. Set in the 24 hours leading up to D-Day, he faces the biggest decision of his life, one that could result in glorious victory or mass slaughter. Brian Cox gets under the skin of Britain’s wartime leader during his darkest hours, exposing his famous black dog depression and the unerring support of his beloved wife Clementine, played by Miranda Richardson.
Fri 7 & Mon 10 Jul 7.30pm, Tues 11 Jul 7.15am & 2pm
1hr 38mins
Dir: Jonathan Teplitzky Cast: Brian Cox, Miranda Richardson

The Other Side Of Hope (12A)
Contemporary Scandinavian cinema isn’t just confined to dark thrillers, they also do a very fine line in deadpan comedy. This warm and deeply humane story tells of the unlikely friendship between a poker addicted shirt and tie salesman, who buys possibly the worst restaurant in the world after a big win, and a Syrian refugee who helps him turn it around.
Tues 11 Jul 7.30pm
1hr 30mins
Dir: Aki Kaurismäki Cast: Kati Outinen, Ville Virtanen
In Finnish, Arabic and Swedish with subtitles

Wonder Woman (12A)
DC Comics’ Wonder Woman gets a movie of her own in this engrossing origin story, which throws a dash of Greek Mythology into the mix. Before she was Wonder Woman she was Diana, Princess of the Amazons, trained warrior. Raised on a sheltered island paradise, when a pilot crashes and tells of a conflict in the outside world, she leaves home to fight a war to end all wars, discovering her full power and true destiny.

Sun 16 Jul 4pm
2hrs 6mins
Dir: Guy Ritchie Cast: Charlie Hunnam, Jude Law

The Hippopotamus (15)
In Stephen Fry’s deliciously wicked comedy of manners, a foul mouthed, whisky soaked lapsed theatre critic is asked to investigate a series of miracle healings at a country manor. The colourful characters he meets there are only too happy to believe in this miracle cure, but Ted’s natural cynicism makes him the ideal candidate to get to the bottom of what’s really going on.

After The Storm (PG)
Japanese auteur Hirokazu Koreeda has made a career of studying the minutiae of the modern Japanese family. His latest impecably acted and directed drama focuses on a once promising crime novelist, who now works as a detective to pay his gambling debts. After the death of his father, he makes an attempt to reconnect with his ex wife and son. A stormy summer night brings them together at last, but there is no way of knowing which way the wind will blow.

Hampstead (12A)

Emily is an American widow living in an idyllic Hampstead town house. Donald is an unremarkable, eccentric loner who lives in a ramshackle hut on the heath. When Donald’s home is put under threat from developers, Emily makes it her personal mission to save him - and rather unexpectedly finds herself falling for his gruff charm.

Mon 24 & Wed 26 Jul 7.30pm

Cars 3 (Cert TBC) A

After being trounced in a race by upstart newcomer Jackson Storm, everyone begins to wonder if Lighting McQueen should retire. But Lightning isn’t ready to throw in the towel yet, and with the help of another rookie - Cruz Ramirez - the old dog is going to learn some new tricks and attempt a comeback in the Florida 500.

Fri 28 July 11.15am

A Man Called Ove (15)

The most hilarious and touching film you are likely to see all year, this Oscar-nominated comedy introduces Ove, a cantankerous retiree who spends his days enforcing block association rules that no-one else cares about and visiting his wife’s grave. The arrival of boisterous new neighbours shakes his regimented existence in ways he would have never imagined, and slowly he begins to embrace life again.

Mon 31 Jul 7.30pm

Rock Dog (Cert TBC)

A Tibetan mastiff must defy the naysayers in his remote mountain community in order to follow his dream of becoming a rock star like his idol, Angus Scatteredgood. But there’s no one left to guard the sheep when he goes away to seek his fortune in the big city, rendering his flock vulnerable to a hungry wolf.

Fri 4 Aug 2pm

Dunkirk (1958) (PG)

Leslie Norman’s 1958 film tells the Dunkirk evacuation story from two differing points of view. British WWII film stalwart John Mills plays a corporal who leads his squad on a dangerous retreat towards the beach at Dunkirk. Richard Attenborough is a business owner in the UK who reluctantly agrees for his recreational boat to be used in the evacuation, only to fully commit when the first wave of troops arrive in the UK.

Dunkirk (Cert TBC) A

This much anticipated WWII epic brings a defining moment of British history to the screen: the miraculous evacuation of over 300,000 allied troops from the beach at Dunkirk. Told from the point of view of three key characters, it promises to be both a thrilling, spectacularly orchestrated war movie and a rousing story of the British bravery, resolve and camaraderie that became known as The Dunkirk Spirit.

Maudie (Cert TBC)

Sally Hawkins stars in the true story of 1930s Canadian artist Maud Lewis, who overcame crippling juvenile arthritis to create a distinctive style of folk art. Set against the windswept Canadian coastline, this biopic focuses on her relationship with her reclusive husband and their life in a tiny cottage. It’s another award worthy performance from Hawkins, who captures both the contorted physicality and mischievous enthusiasm of the self taught painter.
